

And the winner is... Anicka Zavadakova!

Our postgraduate student Anicka Zavadakova phenomenally won in the historically first student contest for the best scientific presentation at the 9th

Biomaterials and Their Surfaces organized by the Institute of Material Engineering of the Faculty of Mechanical Engineering, Czech Technical University, by the Institute of Rock Structure and Mechanics of the Czech Academy of Sciences and by the Czech Composite and Carbon Society.

Great congratulations to Anicka and many thanks for the forever sign of Biomedical Center in the history of Biomaterials and Their Surfaces.
